A New Church Organized-A Cordial Handshaking - New Battery of Field-Pieces.

(Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch.) PRIERSBURG, February 18, 1887.
The Swift-Creek Baptist church, in Chesterfield county, was organized last night with a membership of over fifty persons. The church building has not been erected, but work upon it will be commenced in a few days, and it is expected that the church will be com-pleted and ready for use some time du-ring the month of May. The money for the building has all been subscribed. Rev. A. Woodyard will be the pastor of the church. the church.

It is reported that the matter of the full liability of the companies for the insurance on the tobacco-factory of Mr. Dunlop, recently destroyed by fire, will probably be tested in the courts at the instance of the companies themselves, en the ground of the inadequacy of the water supply, the bad condition of Washington street, &c., which rendered Washington street, &c., which rendered a impossible for the fire department to render efficient service in the suppression of the flames. Such a test would of course involve the liability of the eity for the loss incurred by the fire. But this is only given as a report heard upon the streets. Nothing definite can be stated in the premises.

After his sermon at the First Baptist church last night Rev. H. M. Wharton, church last night Rev. H. M. Wharton, of Baltimore, bade adieu to the people to whom he had been preaching so effectively for the past two weeks. He stood in front of the pulpit, and the crowded congregation, before leaving the building, filed by and each person gave him a cordial shake of the hand, accompanied in many instances with a ecompanied in many instances with a heartfelt blessing.

Captain Trusheim, of the R. E. Lee Battery, has received a letter from the Secretary of War announcing that the new steel guns given by the Govern-ment in exchange for the brass Napo-leons owned by the company will be forwarded to Petersburg in time for their arrival here on or before the 22d of February. On that day the com-pany will make their first parade in their new uniforms and with their new battery, and will celebrate the occasion with a banquet.

A Gala-Day-Tournament and Ball. [Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch.] FEBRUARY 18, 1887. Yesterday was a gala occasion in Suffolk. A large crowd gathered from Norfolk, Portsmouth, and the surround-ing counties to attend the grand tournament and coronation ball which had been appointed to take place at that time. At half-past 11 o'clock A. M. the knights, escorted by the Suffolk Grays and the cadets of the Military Academy, the procession being headed by the Suffolk Brass Band, proceeded to the Commercial Hotel, from the bal-cony of which Captain John H. Wright delivered the charge to the knights. His charge was brief, but very felici-tons. The line of march was taken up for the tournament-grounds, on Central avenue, where the following knights contested for the honors of the occa-

First honor, W. M. Atkinson.
Second, S. T. Ellis, Jr.

Third, W. N. Boswell. Fourth, Thomas B. Hines, The coronation ball took place last night at the Commercial Hotel, and the crowd in attendance was exceedingly large. Several of the successful knights transferred their honors to other gen-tlemen, and the royal set was made up Mr. Adrian Riddick, of Portsmouth, crowned Miss Effic Smith, of Portsmouth, Queen of Love and Beauty. Master Sydney Ellis, of Exchange, crowned Miss Birdie Crump, of Suffolk, First Maid of Honor. Mr. E. W. Hall, of Suffolk, crowned Miss Montague, of Portsmouth, Second

Maid of Honor.

Mr. John C. Smith, of Suffolk, crowned Miss Mary B. Kilby, of Suffolk, Third Maid of Honor.

The coronation address was delivered by Merritt Briggs, Esq., of Suffolk, and was replete with beautiful imagery and poetical allusions. A sumptuous supper was served during the evening.

Marriage of Judge Keith-Washington's Birthday.

(Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch.) FEBRUARY 17, 1887. Judge James Keith, of the Circuit Court, and bride nee Morson passed through here last night on a northern tour. They were married at the Epis-copal church in Warrenton in the afternoon by the rector, Rev. Mr. Nelson, before a large and brilliant assembly. The church was profusely decorated in honor of the event, and a reception followed. The attendants were Misses Kate Keith, Cora Payne, and Marie Kate Keith, Cora Payne, and Marie and Sallie Bruce, Dr. Day, Dr. Carter, and Messra. J. Keith, M. Norton, John Morgan Johnson, and Leonard Marbury, of this city.

Preparations for the celebration of Washington's birthday Tuesday next are being pushed forward.

The Light Infantry and St. John's Cadets with several visiting military organizations, the fire department, several social clubs, and a representation of the trades will compose the procession. It is said to-day that the management have been assured that the President desires to and will most probably attend. John Sherman, Generals Sherisive capture of type and pauphlois.

den and Gibson with their aids also signify their intention to be present.

Speaking will most probably be one of the features. The visitors will be entertained, and perhaps a grand ball given at night in their honor. Reduced rates on all railroads and steamboat lines will be given.

General William H. F. Lee is in the city to-day.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 18, 1887.

There is great activity in all the transportation lines by rail or water at this point just now in the matter of freight competition, particularly in the direction of Eastern North Carolina. There is also a healthy competition between the Eastern Shore railroad and the stranship lines to New York and tween the Eastern Shore railroad and the steamship lines to New York and Philadelphia in bidding for the business of the truckers of this section, and the indications are that shippers will be vastly benefited in the reduction of freights this season. Three steamers of the new "Eastern North Carolina Dispatch Line," which are to connect the Carolina sound and Chowan sections with the Norfolk Southern and New York, Philadelphia and Norfolk railroads, and at once inaugurate the Bils were reported from committees and placed on the calendar as follows: Confirming the title to certain lands in Florida; changing the boundaries of the Fourth collection district of Vir-Mr. Evarts presented the credentials of Frank Hiscock as a senator from the State of New York, for the full term

Messrs. Berry and Teller, Vest and Plumb, and Van Wyck and Gray. The bill now goes to the President. The Senate then, at 3 o'clock, proceeded to the consideration of river-and-harbor appropriation bill. The bill reported by the Committee on Commerce as a substitute for the bill passed by the House was read in full and then the various amendments offered by the chairman of the committee (Mr. McMillan) were adopted. These were generally an increase of the amounts of the various items.

On motion, Mr. Jones, of Arkansas, and after statements by himself and his colleague, Mr. Berry, the item for the Arkansas river was increased from $125,000 to $150,000-yeas, 36; nays,

WONDERFUL PAITH-CURE.

A Girl Raised from an Invalid's Bed and Restored to Bealth.

A Pittsburgh special says: A re markable faith-cure was reported from Banksville, a mining town two miles southwest of this city, to-day. For several years Maggie Beadling, the sixteen-year-old daughter of a coal-miner, has been bedridden. Frequent-ly of late she has laid in a trance of comatose state for days, and when she would return to consciousness she would tell her friends that she had been to Heaven. In proof of this she told the names and described the ap-pearance of relatives who died before she was born, and of others whom she knew when they were alive:

In October and November last she lay in a comatose state for several weeks, during which time she partook I IEBIG COMPANY'S EXTRACT

M. on February 17th she would be raised from an invalid's bed and entirely restored to health. This afternoon her father's house was filled with friends and neighbors, who waited in silence and awe for the predicted manifestation. The girl's face wore an expression of joy, and seemed to grow in beauty as the hour drew near. Exactly at the stroke of 2 she arose from her chair with her crutches in her hands, and, flinging them aside, walked about the room, to the overwhelming astonishment of those present. The cure seemed complete, and she jumped about like a child. The news was

TUESDAY, FEBETARY 22, 1887, ai 4% o'clock P. M., that VALUABLE REAL ESTATE as above located. The lot fronts 29-12 by about 115 feet.
The fact that this property is so centrally located and on one of the main thoroughfares leading to the Union depot gives it a promiwence that will be an equivalent to many dolars spent in advertising. It is now occupied by a good tenant at 5300 per annum.
We invite special attention to this sale, as it offers an opportunity to secure a good business stand or a solid lavestment.
TEENS: One third cash; balance at six and twelve months for negotiable notes, with interest added from the day of sale, and the title retained until the whole purchase-money is paid and a deed ordered by the court.
